

Sideboards and storage units

Katana

Katana is a contemporary sideboard with minimalist and rationalist lines, metal base in various finishes, stoneware or wood top, forming a tray, and elegant metal handles.

CONTEMPORARY SIDEBOARD BY SIGNOROTTO+PARTNERS

Studio Signorotto+Partners is the author of this designer sideboard with a metal handle that has the elegance of a katana, the ancient Japanese weapon, as it slips into the specially designed base. The same lightness outlines the sides that, together with the back, enclose the cabinet with a tray effect at the height of the top.

CONTRASTING FINISHES

Katana's wood exterior and doors, in all Dallagnese finishes, allow the sides and back to be customized differently from the doors to create a play of contrasts, possibly accentuated by the metal handle. The top is in stoneware or wood.

KATANA STORAGE UNIT

Katana's high storage cabinet version with four hinged doors features three glass shelves, or optional wooden shelves, and can be accessorized with bar setup, bottle rasters, drawers and LED lights.
